Parental Objection to Release of Student Information to Military Recruiters & Institutions of Higher Education

Federal law mandates the release of the name, address and telephone number of your child to Military Recruiters and/or Institutions of Higher Education. The law provides in relevant part, that the School District

(1) Shall provide, on request made by a Military Recruiter or an Institution of Higher Education, access to secondary school students' names, addresses and telephone numbers,

(2) Consent – A secondary school student or the parent of the student may request that the students' name address and telephone listing described in paragraph 1 not be released without written parental consent.

According to the law, you may request that your child's name, address and telephone listing not be released without your consent. If you do not want your child's name, address and telephone listing provided to military recruiters or institution of higher learning; please fill out the bottom of this form. If you do not completely fill out the form and sign it, your child's name, address and telephone listing will be made available to Military Recruiters and/or Institutions of Higher Education.
